Notwithstanding the foregoing, Spark may seek injunctive or other equitable relief to protect its rights, and for any other purpose, in any court of competent jurisdiction.

You may opt out of the above arbitration clause. If you opt out, then neither you nor we will be able to require the other to participate in arbitration for the purposes of resolving any dispute, claim or controversy between you and Spark arising out of or relating to these Terms, the Platform, Products, or the relationship between Spark and you. To opt out, you must, within 30 days of accepting these Terms, deliver to Spark a clear written statement indicating that you wish to opt out of the arbitration provisions in these Terms. - 10.2 Waiver. You agree to waive any right you may have to commence or participate in any class action against Spark related to any claim and, where applicable, you also agree to opt out of any class proceedings against Spark. These Terms are personal to you and you may not assign these Terms nor your rights, interests, or obligations under these Terms to any person.
- 12.5 No Waiver. Our failure to exercise or enforce any right or provision of these Terms will not operate as a waiver of such right or provision. No waiver of a breach of these Terms will constitute a waiver of any other breach of these Terms.
- 12.6 Severability. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the parties hereby waive any provision of law that would render any clause of these Terms invalid or otherwise unenforceable in any respect. In the event that a provision of these Terms are held to be invalid or otherwise unenforceable, such provision will be interpreted to fulfill its intended purpose to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, and the remaining provisions of these Terms will continue in full force and effect.

- 12.7 Governing Law. The courts in some countries or provinces will not apply the law of British Columbia to some types of disputes. If you reside in one of those countries or provinces, then where British Columbia law is excluded from applying, your country or province's laws will apply to such disputes related to these Terms. Otherwise, these Terms are governed and interpreted pursuant to the laws of the Province of British Columbia, Canada and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein, without regard to principles of conflicts of law that would impose the law of another jurisdiction. You agree that the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods does not apply to these Terms.
- 12.8 Headings. Headings are for convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation of these Terms.
- 12.9 Language. The parties acknowledge that they have required that the Terms, and all related documents be prepared in English. If these Terms are translated into another language, the English language text shall in any event prevail.
- 12.10 Interpretation. Unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa, and words importing gender include all genders. Where the word "including" or "includes" is used in these Terms, it means "including (or includes) without limitation".
- 12.11 Enurement. These Terms will enure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties to these Terms and their respective successors, heirs and permitted assigns.
- 12.12 Notice. Any notices to be provided to Spark pursuant to these Terms may be provided by email at the following email address [info@xds-spark.com].
- 12.13 Further Assurances. You agree to provide such further documents or instruments, and take such further actions, reasonably requested by Spark, to effect the purposes of these Terms and carry out its provisions.
- 12.14 Force Majeure. In no event will Spark be liable or responsible to you, or be deemed to have defaulted under or breached these Terms, for any failure or delay in fulfilling or performing any term of these Terms, when and to the extent that such failure or delay is caused by any circumstances beyond Spark's reasonable control, including acts of God, flood, fire, public health emergency, earthquake, tsunami, war, terrorism, riot or other civil unrest, embargoes or blockades in effect on or after the date of these Terms, national or regional emergency, strikes, labour stoppages or slowdowns or other industrial disturbances, passage of law or any action taken by a governmental or public authority, including restrictions passed as a result of a public health emergency.
- 12.15 Relationship of the Parties. Each party to these terms is and shall remain at all times an independent contractor. Nothing in these Terms shall be construed to create any association, partnership, joint venture, agency, fiduciary, or employment relationship between you and Spark for any purpose, and neither party has the authority to contract for or bind the other party in any manner whatsoever.
